CARTE POSTALE

Citadel and Mahomet Ali Mosque. The dome, with two slender minarets, of this mosque forms one of the most striking and picturesque features of Cairo, and by its superb situation it dominates everything for miles round. Its court is paved with white marble and its walls have a dado of alabaster. Mohamed Ali whose tomb is here, ruled Egypt early in the 19th century. The Citadel is an ancient fortress said to have been founded by Saladin in 1166.
